ORIGIN OF THE TEER "REP. BESENTATIVE MAN,"-On the 15th of September, 1869, David O. Broderick, United States Senator, fell in a duel with David S. Terry. In the Weekly San Prancisco News, Mr. Broderich's paper appeared an obituary, 19th of September, 1869, there occurred this sentence:

No. 47.

alls Anton Tedette.

"When tears in torrents stream down manly check course down the faces of men who never saw, but only knew the name of Broderick, the question arises, why all this sorrow? The answer is obvious : Mr. Broderick is a Represe dative Man, in the prime of life, and was an exponent of the thoughts, sympathies and feelings of the people of San Francisco," etc., etc. This probably was the origin of this now famous word. It was underscored in the obituary. Since then everyboby speaks of representative men and representative things. One of the Boston literati has published a book entitled "Representative Men."-N. Y. Sunday

THE FIRST PRAYER IN CONGRESS. The following is the first prayer in the old Continental Congress, in 1777, by the Rev. Jacob Duchet, then rector of the Christ Church, Philadelphia. It differs somewhat from the prayers made there in more modern days:

Be thou present, O God of wisdom, and direct the counsels of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle all things on the best and surest foundations; that the scene of blood may be speedily closed; that order, harmony, and peace may be effectually restored, and truth and justice, religion and piety, prevail and flourish among. the people. Preserve the health of their bodies and the vigor of and the millions they here represent such temporal blessings as Thou seest expedient for them in this world, and crown them with everlasting glory in the world to come. All this we ask in the name and through the merits of Jesus Christ, Thy Son and Saviour. Amen.

ETIQUETTE OF THE NAPKIN -- Napkins, says an exchange, have their etiquette. They are to be laid open on the knees, and not fastened to the waisfcoat or button-hole. At the close of a meal at home, you may fuld your napkin and slip it into its ring, to serve for another occasion. But, you must leave your napkin wisped up, or exactly as you have finished it on the table. To fold it would look as if you considered yourself one of the family, or at least on a staying visit.

CONSIDERABLE excitement is manifested in the outside settlements of Utab over that portion of the recent telegraph news, announcing that the Committee on Territories asked the Secretary of War to order bertain persons now in Utah to Washington, to testify up on the conduct of Mormon leaders, so far as regards their continued violation of the laws of the United States. A friend who arrived on yesterday from one of the outside settlements informed us that one man was so excited that he offered to exchange a borse for an old rusty the part of the Government to kill and pillage the Mormon people. The iutention of the Government is to enforce a proper respect for the laxs of Congress, and binster will not change that intentions. No loyal Mormon of Utah has any occasion to fear the result of any action which may be taken by the Government. It is only those who have for years defied the laws, and incited their followers to do the same, that need tremble before the outraged majesty of the nation. Save your borses and let rusty carbines alone. The former are of value. The latter will do no good in set tling the issue new before the people of Utah. This nation will not long. er permit Polygamy to diegrace it. The Mormon leaders must abandon it of their own election, or they will be compelled to do so by the power of the nation. They know his just as well as we do, and they only add to the intensity of their crime whey they persist in further misleading the people on this question. We urgs upon these Mermons who have not yet been forced into Polygamy, to beld fast to the right, for the day of San Francisco, Feb. 23. The Merchante' Exchange committee reports that they have conferred with the citizens of Porfland, and find that by building sixty miles of new road from Peu d'Oreille Lake, eastward, passengers can go from San Prancisco to Helena in ten days. Freights can be shipped through in thirty days at fifteen cepts per pound. There are only 380 miles of land transportation on the whole foute from San Francisco to Helena. The committee believe the opening of this route will direct the Montana trade from St. Louis.

The anniversary of Washington's Birthday was celebrated by a review of the militia by Gevernor Low, in the resence of thousands of spectators. The steamer has been due for two
